The Bill of No Rights

By State Representative Mitchell Kaye (GA)

We, the sensible people of the United States, in an attempt to help people get along, restore some semblance of justice, avoid any more riots, keep our nation safe, promote positive behavior, and secure the blessings of debt-free liberty to our great-great-grandchildren and ourselves, hereby try one more time to ordain and establish some common sense guidelines for the terminally whiny, guilt-ridden, deluded, and other mentally weak folk who surround us.

We hold these truths to be self-evident: that a whole lot of people are confused by the Bill of Rights and are so dim that they require a Bill of No Rights:

ARTICLE I: You do not have the right to a new car, big screen TV, or any other form of wealth. More power to you if you can legally acquire them, but no one is guaranteeing anything.

ARTICLE II: You do not have the right to never be offended. This nation is based on freedom, and that means freedom for everyone - not just you! You may leave the room, change the channel, express a different opinion, etc., but the world is full of idiots, and probably always will be. Accept it.

ARTICLE III: You do not have the right to be free from harm. If you stick a screwdriver in your eye, learn to be more careful, do not expect the tool manufacturer to make you and all your relatives independently wealthy.

ARTICLE IV: You do not have the right to free food and housing. Americans are the most charitable people to be found, and will gladly help anyone truly in need, but we are quickly growing weary of subsidizing generation after generation of professional couch potatoes who achieve nothing more than the creation of another generation of professional couch potatoes.

ARTICLE V: You do not have the right to free health care. That would be nice, but from the looks of public housing, we're just not interested in public health care.

ARTICLE VI: You do not have the right to physically harm other people. If you kidnap, rape, intentionally maim or kill someone, don't be surprised if the rest of us try to see you fry in the electric chair.

ARTICLE VII: You do not have the right to the possessions of others. If you rob, cheat or coerce away the goods or services of other citizens, don't be surprised if the rest of us get together and lock you away in a place where you still won't have the right to a car, a big screen color TV, or a life of leisure.

ARTICLE VIII: You don't have the right to demand that our children risk their lives in foreign wars to soothe your aching conscience. We hate oppressive governments and won't lift a finger to stop you from going to fight if you want to. However, we are not required to parent the entire world and do not want to spend so much of our blood and money battling each and every little tyrant with a military uniform and a funny hat.

ARTICLE IX: You don't have the right to a job. All of us sure want you to have one, and will gladly help you along in hard times, but we expect you to take advantage of the opportunities of education and vocational training laid before you to make yourself useful.

ARTICLE X: You do not have the right to happiness. Being an American means that you have the right to freely pursue happiness - which, by the way, is a lot easier if you are unencumbered by an over abundance of idiotic laws created by those of you who were confused by the Bill of Rights.

Country Pond Fish & Game Club, Inc.

1:00 pm to 3:00 pm

at the Country Pond Fish & Game Clubhouse

We invite our members' children and the children of the town of Newton to come and enjoy refreshments, songs, music, and a visit from Santa Claus.
Each child will receive a gift and have the chance to tell Santa what's on their Wish List!
Please come and join us at the club for an afternoon of fun which will delight the children and get them into the Holiday Spirit this year.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Membership Renewals

Membership renewals for 2013 are due on or before 31 December 2012.

On-time renewal is your responsibility; we do not send out renewal bills.

Dues have been increased this year: $175 for a Regular Membership and $262.50 for a Family Membership.

Renewal Forms can be found in this newsletter, on the Club website, in the Clubhouse main hall, the downstairs hall, and by the sign in log book in the indoor range. Be sure to fill out the form completely and sign it, as we use this to update your information. For a Family Membership, you must complete and sign a separate form with each person's information and signature. LIFE, PERMANENT, and HONORARY members must also fill out a renewal form each year to ensure their correct information is on file. Military Members must apply each year for their Military Membership discount. A copy of your military ID with expiration date is required. Failure to completely fill out and sign forms may cause a delay in issuing new membership cards.

Failure to submit a Renewal form by 31 December will terminate your membership on that date.

Work Credit hours are available to offset Club dues. It's up to you to keep track of your hours and get your credit hour form signed by the appropriate event coordinator. A minimum of 10 hours worked on Club projects in a calendar year could earn you a 20% discount on the next year's dues.

Annual Meeting & Club Elections

On Thursday, 20 December, Country Pond Fish & Game Club will hold its Annual Meeting and Elections. Seven offices are up for grabs: President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Director Seat #1, Director Seat #3, and Director Seat #5.

Prospective candidates may enter their names in the nomination book, along with a minimum of four Members in good standing to nominate them. The book is located in the downstairs hall.

Indoor Archery League

The 2013 Indoor Archery League will start up with an organizational meeting and match on 8 January.

We're looking for some new members to join us and have a fun time. All CPF&G Club Members can participate, even if they've never shot a bow before.

The League shoots every Tuesday at the CPF&G Clubhouse from 18:30 to 21:30, January thru April.

For more information, contact Steve Chase at 603-475-2594 or browndogsoftware@aol.com

The Club will host its annual Chowder Fest on Saturday, 19 January 2013, from 17:00 to 18:30.

We need people who want to share their personal chowder creations. All types of chowder are welcome: corn, clam, fish, seafood, or anything else you might come up with. Bring a crock for sampling.

Contact Sharon Theobald
978-374-8061 ShootinLady655@aol.com

This event is a fundraiser for the Club, so there won't be any prizes for the winner except "Bragging Rights" for the top chef!

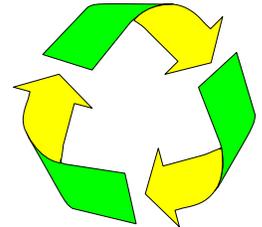

DISCOUNT BULLETS

Country Pond Members - 5% discount on lead bullets at Missouri Bullet Company. Go to "Members Only" on the Club Website.

Metals Recycling

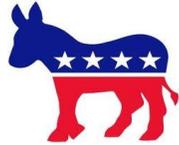

As some of you know, Country Pond Fish & Game Club recycles lead and brass. The Club gets a nice check every month or two from this program.

When cleaning up after shooting, both on the indoor and outdoor ranges, please take the time to dispose of your unwanted brass in the appropriate containers, and not in the trash barrels. Indoors, it's the big yellow box behind Lane #5. On the Outdoor Range, they're those white converted propane tanks on the rear benches. It will be appreciated.

Politics & Legislation

by John Faro, Political Junkie

The elections are over and we, as gun owners and Second Amendment advocates, have a long four years ahead of us. The talking head pundits will be analyzing the election results until the cows come home. (If you don't understand "until the cows come home" ask someone 60 or older).

Bottom line is the advocates of freedom and less government interference in our daily lives lost. We did not lose by a lot but we lost. Are we going to blame the weak candidates fielded by the GOP, like we did in 2008 (John McCain comes to mind) or are we going to face the truth about our beloved country? We have gone from the country of John F. Kennedy, "Ask not what your country can do for you, ask what you can do for your country" to the country of "where's my free stuff?" The country of "I want the government to take care of me from the cradle to the grave."

There are tens of millions gun owners in the country. Where were they on election day? As close as this election was, tens of millions of gun owners would have turned defeat into victory. I spoke with a lot of folks during this election cycle, from standing at the gas pump to attending rallies. What I heard was a lot of "I don't like either one of them. I'm not going to bother to vote." I attended rallies for both candidates, I'm like that, I want to know what the other side is up to. The enthusiasm at Democrat rallies was overwhelming. Students, minorities, and people dependent on government subsidies were a political mega-force.

I saw firsthand at polling places people registering for the first time in droves. People with their ID's ready to vote, although Democrats were screaming thru the election cycle that needing an ID would disenfranchise minority voters. I sure didn't see any problems and I spent seven hours at a voting location as an observer.

Some of us assumed that people would vote "Freedom First" to use the NRA slogan and I'm sure those of us that believe in that slogan did just that. Problem is: there were not enough of us who voted "Freedom First." Once again, where were the tens of millions of gun owners?

We have two years to lick our wounds and decide to get totally involved for the mid-term elections, to fill Congress with legislators who believe in the Constitution and less government in our everyday lives. If we choose not to get totally involved in the next election cycle we may not have to worry about the next Presidential election. There might not be one once our economy collapses and we become a third world country with no international influence whatsoever.

Another Perspective

Some people have the vocabulary to sum up things in a way that you can quickly understand them. This quote came from the Czech Republic. Someone over there has it figured out. It was translated into English from an article in the Prague newspaper Prager Zeitung

"The danger to America is not Barack Obama, but a citizenry capable of entrusting a man like him with the Presidency. It will be far easier to limit and undo the follies of an Obama presidency than to restore the necessary common sense and good judgment to a depraved electorate willing to have such a man for their president. The problem is much deeper and far more serious than Mr. Obama, who is a mere symptom of what ails America. Blaming the prince of the fools should not blind anyone to the vast confederacy of fools that made him their prince. The Republic can survive a Barack Obama, who is, after all, merely a fool. It is less likely to survive a multitude of fools, such as those who made him their president."

Gun Rights Organizations

"A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms, shall not be infringed."
